THE TORCH

PRESENTED BY
THE CLASS OF JUNE 1966
EAST SIDE HIGH SCHOOL, NEWARK, NEW JERSEY

INTRODUCTION – TORCH 1966

Torch Office — 1966

To Those Who Chance Upon This Book:

What is a yearbook? It is an autograph album (a very expensive one); it is a collection of a million pictures of a million people doing a million things; it is a limited first-run edition of a book, custom bound and wrapped in years of honored traditions. Its production is hampered by all of these pedantries, seeped in personal emotions and treasured by its owners throughout their lives and the lives of their heirs. One seldom, if ever, finds a family Bible or a school annual among the many volumes in a second-hand book store; therefore, this edition requires some explanation on my part.

Although my association with yearbooks has not been too extensive, having only produced three of them, I nevertheless have arrived at some definite conclusions about what a yearbook should attempt to be. Moreover, I have been fortunate to have come across a group of students, The Class of June 1966, who concur with me in these opinions.

This then is a very unique yearbook. It is unique in its conception and execution. We, the yearbook staff and I, have attempted to present one year in the life of East Side High School coupled with moments to remember of a student's life for four years of senior high. Our theme, "Moments To Remember", has provided a vehicle to carry this out. You will find going through this book several shattered traditions. There are no divisions, no activity sections, and all the items that rightfully belong in a yearbook have been placed alphabetically in the book, regardless of their position, their prestige, or their social rank. Every entry falls where its title alphabetically places it. We have tried to give this placement an opportunity to carry the theme to its logical conclusion. A yearbook begins its life soon after it is given to each senior. As the years pass, what a treasure chest of memories it breeds for them to share with their children and friends. The candid pictures, typical moments of a student's life, were selected to provoke these memories of things enjoyed, things despised, and things revered. It is our lasting hope that we have succeeded in accomplishing this to some small extent. I encourage you, the reader and viewer, to approach the reading of this book with this foremost in your mind. I hope that the shattering of traditions is justified by the firm belief that this edition of the Torch will be remembered for having successfully achieved what the Torchbearers and I have set out to do.

Most Sincerely,

George R. Benson, Jr. — Advisor

CHEERLEADERS

CLASS ADVISOR — MR. L. CHILL

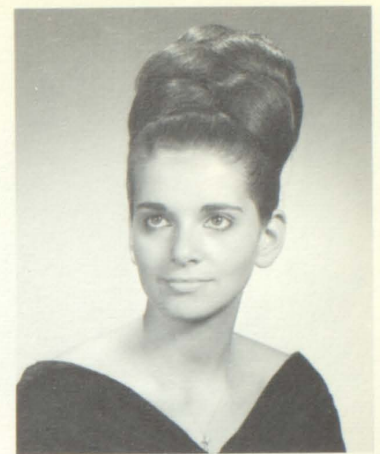

The Graduating class of June 1966 wishes to extend to Mr. L. Chill our most sincere thanks for his outstanding work as our class advisor. Not one of us will ever forget our last year at East Side because of the direction and hard work of Mr. Chill. His talent for accomplishment plus his never say die attitude will be an incentive to us all as we journey down life's road. He has succeeded magnificently in a task for which his ultimate reward is our respect and deep devotion, we hope with the grace of God he will have continued success as a teacher and in any endeavor he may attempt. Our hearts grow sad in leaving this school and from under his wing. But, in our hearts we know he is great.

IN MEMORIAM

"... any man's death diminishes me, because I am involved in mankind, and therefore never send to know for whom the bell tolls; it tolls for thee."

John Donne

Danny Singer's death has diminished us all. Yet, I think that we are all a little better for having had contact with his integrity, brightness, humor, principled forthrightness & intelligent sensitivity. We will miss his broad smile and youthful manner.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS:

As another edition of The Torch comes to a close I find myself owing a grateful "Thank You" to the following people. Miss Shirley without her generous help I could not have done: Joe Zelinski for his layouts: The Gang 4th & 8th periods for their help, co-operation, and understanding: Joe Vieira for the Cover Design: Bob and Nick for an understanding between friends: Mr. Chill for "leaving it up to you": and the Class of 1966.
